

Arthur & Catherine in the early years

Now, relaxing after years of hard work & enjoyment

Arthur and Catherine Clausen are retiring after over four decades in business serving Edmonton and Alberta in the antiques and fine arts; both in retail and by public auction. Their time in business began when they both left their Public School teaching positions in 1969 to devote efforts to their first venture "Glenora Gallery". This small collectables outlet was a failure but an invaluable business learning experience. For several years "Cripps Clausen Auction Consultants Ltd." was a successful grounding for a foothold in the Edmonton area auction industry and to be accepted as credible and knowledgeable antique and Canadiana auctioneers. Arthur imported English and European antiques by container for several years and the retail outlet Arthur Clausen Antiques was known for quality merchandise. Then, due to the devastating National Energy policy of the 1980's the Clausen's survived in business by liquidating their large inventory by auction via "Arthur Clausen and Sons Auctioneers". And so it was.

Their family has been involved in the building of the business from the beginning. Currently Michael is an accredited appraiser, CPPA and an antique dealer.

Steven is a freelance auctioneer with in-depth knowledge on fine art and antiques. Kirstin is the CEO of the Britannia Mine Museum. Over the decades Arthur and Catherine have been supporters of the Auctioneers Associations of Alberta and Canada. Both have held executive and Presidential positions. They have aided in the pursuit of fair rules and Government regulations for auctioneers, and the industry.

Indeed the Clausen's have left a positive footnote to the growth and development story of auctions in Edmonton and Alberta.

Highlights for Arthur & Catherine

- Arthur and Catherine have received 4 decades of pleasure from handling, selling and admiring fine antiques and personal property.
- Both are teachers by training; they valued the opportunity to teach and educate about the items they were selling and share their love of craftsmanship and quality.
- They have tremendous appreciation and respect for their reliable and enthusiastic staff and all their neighbours, family and friends who were 'always' on call to work an auction!
- They are proud to be a part of the rich tradition of 'antique dealers/auctioneers and thankful for the business opportunities and life long friendships that resulted.
